Setback to Hitler.

It was the first serious setback Adolf Hitler suffered since he came into power. Catholics and socialists united to turn back the nazi attempt to establish a dictatorship.

So important did Hitler view the election that he sent General Hermann Wilhelm Goering, minister of aviation and Prussian premier, and Dr. Paul Joseph Goebbels, propaganda minister, into the free city to stake their reputations as orators.

Strong nazi opposition developed in Danzig municipality and in Zoppot, a ashionable Baltic resort. So disappointing were the figures for Danzig municipality that the nazi-controlled senate which ran the election went home to bed without publishing them.

Brakes Cause Tragedy.

CHATEAU THHERRY. France. April T.—(F)—A racing car careened of a highway at high speed today into a crowd of people, killing two children outright and fatally injuring a woman and a ten-year-old boy. Twenty-two others were injured, three of them so seriously they were expected to die. The machine shot into the crowd like a shell, severing the legs of three of the injured and fracturing those of seven others.

The machine was driven by a racer named Cattaneo in the annual road race up Chateau-Thierry hill. A sudden application of brakes when the car was 100 yards from the finish caused it to leap from the road, hit a tree and bounced back across the highway again straight into the crowd.

As the machine whipped around its rear end knocked down spectators right and left. The girl who was killed was a baby, two years old. The boy was 14. Cattaneo, the driver, was not but.

Figures Do Not Give Complete Picture and Several Instances Reveal Earning Drop.

(Copyright, 1985, by the Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, April 7.—(P)—
How the pay of many big corporation executives rose last year was shown today by their reports to the Federal Trade and Securities Commissions.
Francis B. Davis, chairman of the United States Rubber Company, for example, got $125,000 last year, compared with $107,550 in 1932. J. D. A. Morrow, president of the Pittsburgh Coal Company, received $74,440 last year and $30,780 two years before.
The figures were too few to give a definite indication of the trend throughout the thousands of American corporations, officials said, adding that in some cases changes in official capacity—promotions, demotions or resignations—probably accounted for changes.

ASUNCION, Paraguay, April 7.—
(P)—After several weeks of comparative quiet in the Chaco war, Paraguay launched a determined drive today to consolidate its foothold in the eastern portion of the Bolivian department of Santa Cruz, the ministry of defense announced.

In a sharp engagement beside the River Parapiti, the communique said, Paraguayans advanced into Santa Cruz proper and "almost completely destroyed" a Bolivian infantry regiment and a cavalry force.

A message from the front said seven Bolivian towns in Santa Cruz had fallen into the enemy's hands, along with others of less importance. One of these was the important town of Amboro, which will be used as a base for a drive on the city of Santa Cruz, capital of the department of that name. Amboro is only 70 miles from it.

The taxes are levied on cotton, wheat, corn, hogs and other major commodities to provide the funds with which Secretary Wallace and his aids pay farmers to curtail.

Textile manufacturers claim that the 4.2 cents a lint pound levied on cotton is a prime reason for demoralization of the industry and somewhat similar complaints have been made against the other taxes.

Wallace has replied that the taxes are necessary to provide the money for the producer who co-operates with the administration in its attempt to adjust supply to demand.

Mrs. Marie Meeks, of a Pryor street address, a pedestrian, was injured when the automobiles driven by Jack Winter, 17, of 542 Peeples street, S. W., and D. Lovell, of 2043 Peachtree road, collided at Spring and Simpson streets and struck a parked car which ran up over the curbing onto the sidewalk, striking her. She was treated at Grady hospital for minor injuries and was dismissed.

Four persons were injured early Sunday morning in a crash at Lakewood avenue and McDonough road when the automobile said to have been driven by Mrs. Novie Sweangin, 37. of a Washington street address, collided with an automobile driven by E. L. Sheridan Jr., 28, of 1892 Jonesboro road. Mrs. Sweangin was cut about the face and arms and was arrested on a charge of drunk and operating an automobile and reckless driving and having an accident.

Howard C. Bagwell, of S14 Azalia street, who said he was the owner of the car the woman was driving, was cut about the head and lost several teeth. He was arrested on a charge of drunkenness. Sheridan was slightly injured, and his father, who is a foreman at the federal prison, was cut about the face and hands. A technical charge of reckless driving and having an accident was booked against the younger Sheridan.

Conceptions of Salvation Discussed by Rev. Stauffer

Editor's Note: The Constitution this morning presents the thirteenth of a series of features dealing with Atlanta ministers and their sermons. On succeeding Monday mornings, other clergymen will be shown in their pulpits, together with abstracts of their messages.

The Rev. C. R. Stauffer, minister of the First Christian church, spoke Sunday on "Christ the Savior." An abstract of his sermon follows:

"The angel announced Jesus as a 'Savior, Who is Christ the Lord.' In the gospel according to John we find these significant words 'God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosever believeth on him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God sent not his Son, into the world to judge the Son into the world to judge the world; but that the world should be saved through him.'

word; but that the word should be saved through him.'

"There are many different conceptions of salvation, all of which merit our thought and each of which contains some truth, sometimes emphasized out of proportion. Someone has stated it this way 'Salvation is emancipation of the life from the penalty, the polution and the power of sin. Jesus recognized that to be free, there must be the inner life, the abundant life and a knowledge of the truth that brings real freedom. Sin is selfishness that finds expression through violation of God's laws and separation from God's presence. Salvation means a new creature, transformed from a self-centered living to a life that lives for others. Salvation is not something that is done for us, but something that happens within the life. It is the achievement of noble icharacter.

"Jesus saw what was in man. He had a thorough knowledge of human life and personality. He was the great psychologist of the ages. When he chose his disciples, he selected a group of very ordinary men from man's standpoint. After a few short years of teaching and living with them, he gave to them the greatest responsibility that has ever been entrusted to men, to go into all the world and teach and preach his gospel. His life, his atoning death, and his resurrection had called out the best that was within them and had set them free from the enslaving influences of selfishness and sin. They had been transformed under his influence from weak, vaccilating, cowardly men to the most courageous and stable group the world has ever known, for tradition tells us that only one of them died a natural death, the others filling martyrs' graves for the cause that was dear to them, dearer than life itself.

was dear to them, dearer than life itself.

Taught Only One Gospel.

"Very often we hear men contending, some for an individual gospel while others stand for a social gospel. Jesus never made such a distinction. He taught one gospel. Of course He was deeply interested in the inidividual. Some of His greatest teachings were given when an individual with a troubled soul and a yearning heart came in search of truth and freedom. Jesus in each case looked into the inner life and discovered what was standing between the individual and his God and with words of tenderness He courageously gave the remedy such as 'Except one be born anew, he cannot see the kingdom of God' or as to the rick young ruler 'Go sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor.' In the former case it was a ruler among the Jews who was proud of his birth and was depending upon it for his standing and in the latter case it was a rich young ruler who had his possessions not for what they would enable him to do for his fellows but possessed them for his own gratification. Jesus struck at the sins of pride and selfishing and in the latter case it was a rich young ruler who had his possessions not for what they would enable him to do for his fellows but possessed them for his own gratification. Jesus struck at the sins of pride and selfishing and dissipated his life and personality.

A tube was attached to the exhaust pipe and led into the automobile. A coroner's jury returned a verdict of suicide.

Katz Dogs Are Lost;

Police Asked to Aid Mrs. Katz lost her dogs and Sunday to St. Charles place, N. E., told the police, is a thoroughbred police dog. The other soul and dissipated his life and personality.

"On the other hand, Jesus never lost sight of the world about Him. He taught that His kingdom was to fill the whole earth. He taught the parable of the leaven saying 'The Kingdom of Heaven is like unto the leaven which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till it was all leavened."

Application to Parable.

"The application of this parable is easily made. Jesus by His wonderful personality influenced His disciples and they in turn influenced others and and they in turn influenced others and the process will continue until the world has been influenced. In His prayer for His disciples Jesus prayed not that they be taken from the world but that they should be kept from the evil one. These disciples were to go into the world that they might change it.

"One of the great ideas that Jesus continually emphasized was 'brotherhood.' He practiced it in His life day by day. It enabled Him to overcome racial and class prejudice. He could talk just as freely to the woman of Samaria, of a despised race as he did to one of His own race. He sent His disciples out to make disciples of those of all nations. They went forth, great, unselfish personalities guided as the Holy Spirit led them to people of all races and conditions. They went forth as the leaven among all peoples to influence for righteousness, brotherhood and justice. Today the one who is really saved has his blood continually stirred at conditions that debauch human life, at social injustice, at war and unemployment. He cannot be content to have the ideals of Christ in his heart without applying them in all human relationships. A moment's thought will convince one that this world that is on the brink of destruction from the threat of war and injustice will find salvation only in winning a vast majority in every nation to the unselfish gospel of brotherhood and peace, righteousness and justice. "One of the great ideas that Jesus

WHAT GERMANY WANTS

The territorial acquisitions demanded by the Pan-Germanists are so extensive as to affect every country bordering on the reich.

From the Berlin headquarters of the Austro-German Volksbund—an organization closely affiliated with the Hitler government, if not actually sponsored by it—there was recently distributed throughout Germany and Austria thousands of copies of a map in which these two countries are printed in red and the outline of "Integral Germany" in—All prayers are said in a standing.

When the Abyssinians meet a priest in the streets, they incline their theads and murmur: "Father, remit me my sins!" The priest replies by saying: "May He absolve you!" From both sides the words come in a mechanical way, as casually as if they had wished each other good morning. There are many priests in Abyssinia. Coptic priests, vast monasteries, crowded seminaries and numerous confraternities, half-lay, half ecclesiastical. As was the custom in the middle ages in Europe, every family of prominence has a house chaplain. The chaplain as "the guardian of my soul." All prayers are said in a standing up position. The Abyssinians do not kneel. Since the invocations are extremely long (a morning service on an ordinary day lasting fully two hours), most people cannot support the physical strain of remaining standing up in one place for such plant of time. That is why they lean on crutches during prayers. The poor use wooden crutches, the upper classes lean on silver and golden supports.

In the cathedral of Addis Abeba I saw the Negus leaning on a solid golden crutch, encrusted with jewels. The prayers are said in a language known as "Gueze." This is the old Mesia, at Poland's expense.

News Behind the News

BRONX COMPROMISE WASHINGTON, April 7.—The congressional cloak rooms have coined a new phrase—"the Roosevelt compromise." The use of the word "Roosevelt" before "compromise" gives it the same adverse meaning as the word "Bronx" before "cheer." It implies that you lose your hat, coat, vest and trousers, and all you have is your face.

The phrase has its root derivation in the congressional experi-

The phrase has its root derivation in the congressional experience with the White House on the new relief bill.

There was no secret about the fact that all the restrictions placed on President Roosevelt's proposed expenditure of $4,880,000,000 are merely pretended restrictions which do not restrict

It is not quite so well known that the specific restriction requiring Mr. Roosevelt to send the names of his new relief directors to the senate for confirmation is an even greater joke.

WORDS The senate inserted that restriction so it could prewords The senate inserted that restriction so it could prevent interior Secretary Ickes from getting control of any part of the new relief set-up. But the New Dealers put their lawyers to work on the wording of the amendment and found it would not affect Mr. Ickes in the small part for which he is slated. It will affect only those relief directors who have not already been confirmed by the senate and who draw pay out of the relief fund. Ickes gets his pay from the interior department, Admiral Peoples from the treasury, Wood from commerce. Only Hopkins gets his pay from the relief fund. A way probably will be found to keep even Hopkins from going through the senate wringer.

So all you need to know about the new law is that after six

So all you need to know about the new law is that, after six weeks of compromising, it is exactly what Mr. Roosevelt wanted. LEADERSHIP A New York congressman has been nosing around inside the house seeking to upset the leadership. He has not been getting much encouragement. The movement un-

Absent Floor Leader Bankhead, who has been ill since the session started, is now in fairly good health. He takes auto rides nearly every afternoon, these fine spring days. House cronies keep him informed. Their assumption is that, whenever the house gets into a tight place, and the administration needs help, Mr. Bankhead will make a dramatic reappearance on the floor.

Even in Mr. Bankhead's absence, the house democratic leadership has been unexpectedly efficient so far.

KIDDING Heartening word is circulating among liberal insiders that Mr. Roosevelt will come to the assistance of the Wagner labor board bill, if and when his help is needed.

This has cheered up the liberals, but it has not dissipated the

A significant scene was frequently repeated at the White House last year. Senator Wagner would come out of a conference with the president every once in a while, and say, in response to questions, that he thought his bill would go through. Stories were always circulated just like those which are circulating now. You may recall that Mr. Roosevelt never said anything about the bill then and it failed of passage.

REFLECTION The White House mirrors which ordinarily reflect the president's thoughts are conveying an impression that Mr. Roosevelt will choose a businessman as the next

Such an astounding thing has never been thought of seriously in Washington before. The idea of not having a politician to run the postoffice department is a vision which has been seen only by the radicals. It violates a custom which has been followed by all modern presidents, republican and democratic. No names are being mentioned. Many months will pass before Farley confines his activities to the chairmanship of the democratic national committee, so there is plenty of time.

COMPLEXES The Blanton outburst against the press in the house a few days ago was applauded by an unusually large number of congressmen.

The explanation is that the average congressman and the average public official suffer alike from chronic press-persecution complexes. Most men in public life have exaggerated ideas of the importance of the things they are doing. Many sincerely believe that, if the public knew all about them, they would be elected president, or something equally lofty.

recent tremendous growth of big news about New Deal doings, the average congressman and the average public offi-cial have been consigned to even deeper press obscurity. Speeches are no longer considered of importance. Action is the thing the people want to know about.

NEXT The next major legal challenge to arrest the New Deal will shortly be made on the constitutionality of the TVA. The case is now being prepared.

Bishopric NEW YORK, April 7.
Your correspondent is in a rather bad jam with Bishop Frank H. Rice, D. D., president and supreme pontiff of the Liberal Church, Inc., of Coloof the Liberal Church, Inc., of Colc-rado. About a year ago the supreme pontiff appointed your correspondent a mail-order bishop of the Liberal Church, Inc., with authority to per-form marriages and conduct funeral services but without authority to ac-cept fees or take up collections, a proviso which seemed to mitigate the honor. Then, about a month ago, the su

Then, about a month ago, the supreme pontiff wrote your correspondent a severe rebulse for writing some essays in disparagement of United States Senator Huey P. Bishop Rice notified your correspondent that this was insubordination toward a mail-order ecclesiastical superior and said that these articles made him so mad that they made him swear and compelled him to double the time he daily spent in prayer.

Deeming this a topic of interest, your correspondent composed a piece about the situation and now the heat

Long, with a pardonable note of pride, as Mr. Henry Ford might boast of a Ford-aminute, that he had conferred more than 18,000 mail-order D. D.'s and ordained 900 mail-order bishops, 302 archbishops and 70 cardinals in the last 12 years. Under the circumstances it is conceivable that the record might become slightly jumbled, although the matter is serious enough to deserve better bookkeeping.

"Bishop Frank H. Rics, president and supreme pontiff of the Liberal Church, Inc., has received to date 837 letters of inquiry as a result of your article about your alleged bishopric.

"You are respectfully and duly informed that unless your alleged ordination as bishop has been duly recorded with some registrar of deeds or made a matter of public record with some subdivision of some state and that unless there is attached to said ordination an affidarit signed by your self in which you agree to obey the civil and criminal laws regulating the existence of religious societies your instrument, if in reality existing, has been automatically cancelled.

"However, if this has been done, you are respectfully informed that, according to the canonical literature of the church, you lay yourself open to a charge of hereay by attacking a superior prelate unless you have been authorized by the congress of cardinals to do so.

"The bishop further wants to request that you do not publish any articles about the church without his authority, for the reason that it brings so much mail that the expense of answering it is too great. not marry anybody on the authority of the original warrant, which undebitably does exist and lies on the desk at this writing, but if he had done so the blame would belong to the supreme pontiff. There is nothing in the document about the necessity of recording the same at the county seat, and for all that the supreme pontiff knew to the contrary, your correspondent might have become a marrying fool, sitting for customers beside the road like the parsons at Elkton, Md. It just seemed that there wasn't enough authority in this unsolicited mail-order appointment, and anyway, who wants to be routed out at all hours of the night by a lot of rum-pots who have been out heeling around in some roadbouse and decided marrying fool, sitting for customers beside the road like the parsons at Elkton, Md. Another thing is that nowhere in any of the correspondence does it say whether the Liberal Church, Inc., is whether the Liberal Church, inc., is a white church or a negro church, and this is important not only to your correspondent but to the Reverend Archbishop Huey P. Long, of Louisiana. If your correspondent was a mail-order colored clergyman all this last year without knowing it, at least least year. mail-order colored clergyman all this last year without knowing it, at least he is uncolored again now by the decree of the supreme pontiff. In the event there is sufficient agreement on 1936 possibilities, Bingham said, it is tentatively planned to call a national congress of progressive leaders sometime later in the midwest—probably Chicago—to formulate plans for a national third party convention and for the launching of a campaign.

It was understood that the third party movers, at the meeting yesterday, were not opposed to Senator Huey Long, of Louisiana, or Father Charles A. Coughlin, of Royal Oak, Mich., although they did feel strongly that they overdid the matter of "personal leadership."

"The group definitely felt that any meeting of individuals, without state organization or labor movement, would be a mistake," Bingham said. "It was felt, in this light, that it would be a mistake if the leadership of a third party was taken by Senator Long or Father Coughlin."

Gassaway also recited a story of what he said was the advent of the "first Kingfish" in Louisiana.

"He was a fellow named John Law, of Scotland," Gassaway said. "who escaped that country. . . He then came to Louisiana, which was then under French dominion, and was James A. Robinson, 71, and W. T. Snead, 76, who drove horse cars in Atlanta a half century ago. Friday night were presented the first 50- year service emblems ever to be a warded to employes of the Georgia Power Company.

Two diamond-studded pins, denoting 50 years of continuous employment, were presented to the men by P. S. Arkwright, president of the power company, at the twelfth annual dinteresting of the transportation department, at the Atlantan hotel. He also presented at lantan hotel. He also presented at lantan hotel. He also presented at the horse car he drove.

In an address before about 60 employes and guests of honor, Mr. Arkwright told how the present Georgia Power Company had evolved from a small street railway company and how the street car service had played an indispensable part in the growth of Atlanta.

Mr. Robinson, affectionately known as "Oncle Jim," was employed by the Metropolitan Railway Company in Atlanta 50 years ago to drive a horse car, and is now clerk in the lost articles office in the Electric building. He remembers when the first electric car was operated from Edgewood avenue to Inman Park, and that people were afraid to ride on it, espetrial News of Past Week Gives New Courage to Financial Markets.

NEW YORK, April 7.—(P)—With the past week chalking up the best gains in securities prices for any week this year, Wall Street looks forward with hope that an extremely lean season is drawing to a close.

The recovery of securities prices, some market analysts thought, bore the earmarks of a mere technical rebound after an excess of gloom. They pointed to the absence of indications of a decisive change in the business background.

Rauschning, former president of the free city senate, had suddenly left the free state territory because of having been severely arsailed by nazi speakers during the election campaign for his opposition to the nazi program.)

The election was to choose representatives to the volkst. Z, or lower house of the free city's parliament, which was dissolved by command of the nazis last February. There were seven parties on the ballots.

90 Per Cent Cast Votes.

More than 90 per cent of the 234-1000 eligible voted, officials estimated. Seven thousand voters were brought by the nazis from abroad. They walked the streets with colorful badges pinned on coat lapels for identification.

ed the streets with colorful badges pinned on coat lapels for identification.

All day long the nazis extended their vigilant efforts to get out the vote and show the world that Danzig is German and "remains German."

Hitler's followers, who are claimed by opponents to have determined to punish Catholics and socialists for making frequent appeals to the league against Hitlerism, appeared to command the voting booths.

Representatives of the other parties sat on election boards but on the whole the atmosphere was distinctly nazi. Hitler greetings such as "Heil Hitler!" and the nazi salute, which caused disqualifications in the Saar plebiscite, were frequently exchanged between voters and officials. The only sign of opposition parties was men stationed at the doors of voting booths with placards inviting the entrants to vote center. Polish or social democrat.

20,000 ATLANTANS ATTEND G. M. SHOW

Display of Cars and Fashion Revue Draw Crowds on First Two Days.

More than 20.000 persons visited the spring showing of General Motors automobiles and household products at the city auditorium Saturday and Sunday, despite the inclement weather, and displayed keen interest not only in the G. M. products but in the fashion revue which is sponsored by Rich's, Inc.

The Atlanta exhibit is one of several which is being conducted this week throughout the United States to acquaint the public with the results of another year's intensive work of General Motors in engineering research and design.

While the showing of the large line of products in itself is unique, decorators have designed distinctive setting which makes the showing more appealing. Music is furnished by Perry Bechtel and his orchestra.

Banker Lays Suicide To Business Associate

WINCHESTER, Mass., April 7.—
(P)—Bowen Tufts, 50-year-old millionaire investment banker and director in 48 corporations, took his own life today, a medical examiner said, and left a note placing the blame for his act on a Boston real estate man. Tufts was found dead in the garage of his home, the motor of his automobile running. Death had been caused by carbon monoxide poisoning and Medical Examiner William H. Kelcher pronounced him a suicide. The note, addressed to a real estate man with whom Tufts was believed to have had business dealings, said:

G. O. P. Selects TVA 3,000 Members of Order of Ahepa in South CHURCH

WASHINGTON, April 7.—(P)—With campaign issues in mind, congressional republicans today planned a vigorous assault on TVA.

Ranking party members in the house disclosed the Tennessee Valley Authority question was discussed at a G. O. P. assembly Friday night.

The first onslaught was set for Tuesday, when the house military committee was to hear again the three directors of TVA on a bill that would greatly enlarge the Authority's powers. They were called for further testimony at the demand of Representative McLean, republican, New Jersey, one of the minority chieftains on the committee.

Describing their previous testimony as unsatifactory, McLean said he wanted to inquire thoroughly into what TVA had done, how much it had spent, what it proposes to do and at what cost. He is assembling data on his own bearing on TVA operations. Party leaders at Friday's conference told McLean to go ahead and "more power to him." They suggested he spring his facts and figures on the house floor, too.

Dr. R. R. Moton Succeeded By Chief of Institute's Agricultural Dept.

TUSKEGEE, Ala., April 7.—(A)—A 34-year-old negro, a doctor of philosophy and an agricultural expert, today was elected president of Tuskegee Institute, the nation's bestknown negro college, to succeed the aging Dr. R. R. Moton, who was elevated to president is Dr. Frederick Douglass Patterson, for the last seven years head of Tuskegee's agricultural department and a native of Washington, D. C.

Dr. Moton's resignation, announced last October in New York, was accepted "with great regret because of his ill health" by the board of trustees to become effective at the end of the 1935 school year in June.

Dr. Moton succeeded the institute's founder, Booker T. Washington, in 1915 and has seen Tuskegee grow from a small college to one with more than 1,200 students. In addition, many fine buildings have been erected during his administration and the school's endowment fund has been built to $7,000,000.

Dr. Patterson left Washington at the age of 7 when his family moved to a farm near Perry View, Texas, here he attended Perry View College. Later he went to Iowa State University, graduating in 1923. He received his master's degree at Iowa and later obtained his Ph. D. at Cornell University.

GOING TO BUY A NEW TRUCK?

ARE 3 SUGGESTIONS

Tell him you want to arrange for an "on-the-job" test with YOUR OWN loads, over YOUR OWN routes and make your own tests of V-8 Performance and V-8 Economy. Ask him to lend you his demonstrator truck so you can see for yourself what this 1935 Ford V-8 Truck will do for YOU!

SECOND—Put His Demonstrator to Work

When your Ford dealer delivers his demonstrator truck to you, load it up with a regular load and use it in place of one of your present trucks. Don't "baby" it. Use it just as you would if it belonged to you. Keep track of its fuel and oil economy and make a record of its speed in covering your regular routes.

THIRD—Compare V-8 Performance and V-8 Economy with Present Equipment

At the end of your tests, compare the performance and economy of the 1935 Ford V-8 Truck with your present equipment. Then . . . ask your dealer about the exclusive Low-cost Ford Engine Exchange Plan and the many other parts exchange privileges which assure low maintenance costs. Ask the DELIVERED price of the body type that you plan on buying. And consider the many costly and exclusive features Ford gives you at this low price. Then you will agree that the 1935 Ford V-8 Truck has a right to the title "AMERICA'S GREAT TRUCK VALUE."

One evening a formal party was given for her. A young couple, who are good friends of the Keelers and who were also to be guests at the affair, phoned to say they would call in their car and take the trio to the party.

The party was evidently a huge necess. At a very late hour the leposited Mr. and Mrs. Keeler, with Miss Bauer, at their resi-lence. As the car sped away, it suddenly occurred to "O. B." that not having occasion to use his own car, he had inadvertently left his car key securely locked inside the house. On the same ring with it was his door key. He was also inside. They began to try to force an entrance, all to no avail. Never have doors and windows so successfully defied

There was nothing to do but walk to a nearby filling station, phone for a taxi, and seek rooms for the night in a downtown ho-tel. That explains why you saw them during the early morning rush hour on the way to the locksmith, all three looking as if the party was just over.

THE artistic ability and remarkable ingenuity of Mrs. R. L. Cooney was displayed by adorning the tables at the luncheon she gave on Friday at her home in Druid Hills. The oc-casion complimented Mrs. Ellen Shipman, of New York, renowned landscape architect, and guests were seated at small tables at which covers were placed for.

The small dainty variety of flowers was selected from Mrs. Cooney's garden for the table decorations. One table boasted a centerplece formed entirely of yellow pansies with crimson velvety centers. Arranged in a rubyglass container these faced blooms made a charming contrast to the white Wedgwood china and red glass appointments used on the table.

Another table was centered with tiny forget-me-nots and scilla, the latter being a single hyacinth, a shade darker than the delicate blue forget-me-nots. Arranged in a blue glass bowl matching the other glass on the table the two shades of blue flowers harmonized with the fragile blue and white china used during the luncheon courses.

A third table was striking in its appointments of amber glass and blue and yellow china, candytuft and yellow ranunculus, familiarly known as bachelor button, were chosen for the floral motif of this lovely table.

The artistic skill of the hostess was further exhibited in the larger arrangements of flowers grouped on the mantels, book-cases and tables in the rooms where the guests assembled.
Combining delicate flesh-colored crabapple blossoms with lilacs, iris, spirea and lilies, all culled from Mrs. Cooney's gardens, the rooms presented a bower of springtime loveliness.

Suspended on the wall beyond the tea table was an imposing array of ribbons captured by the army riders at the Thomasville Jacksonville horse shows. Centering interest were photographs of the winning horses, each picture encircled by ribbons. Photographs of the Fort McPherson squad and of the Governor's Horse Guard team were displayed, the two teams having competed in the Army Day game.

Assisting the official hostesses at the tea was a group of attractive members of the army set, including Mesdames Robert O. Van Lorenzo Gasser, Frank Burnett, Ralph Glass, Rollo P. Bourbon and Reese M. Howell.

A young correspondent would like to know why it is that she who has good looks, brains enough to be an hon-or student at college and clothes so smart that she is voted the best dress-ed girl in her class isn't able to at-

Maybe she was born without that magnetizing, electric quality we call personality. Nobody has ever yet defined it clearly but anybody recognizes it and respends to it instantly. It isn't always hid behind a pretty face a good figure and smart clothes. These things do attract a man's eyes but they don't necessarily hold his interest. If in addition to these things she has brains and common sense she can cultivate traits that make appeal to men and run a close second to the girl who is born with the hypnotic power of perorn with the hypnotic power of per

Dr. Wiggam points out that one reason why business women get married more frequently than professional women is because they give so much attention to their personal appearance and always present a picture good to look at. They are generally groomed in the pink of perfection. They have regular appointments at the beauty shops; skin, hair and nails are never neglected. During the darkest days of the depression one beauty shop operator said she would have to close but for the sustained trade of business women. The first lure of feminine charm is physical cleanliness and inviting daintiness. The girls who work with men have discovered this. Dr. Wiggam points out that one re-

Perhaps the second most important item in holding the interest of the boy-friend once it is awakened, is in being able to entertain him, or, just as good, in being able to make him feel that he is gniertaining. We like to be with people who laugh and make us laugh, people who are lighthearted and gay, people who respond to humorous situations. The girl who has a lot of beaux is usually one who laughs her way through life. Mark you, there is a big difference between a laugh and a senseless giggle.

There are not many entertaining people who talk about themselves all the time. No matter how clever a girl may be the boy she is with doesn't enjoy hearing her exploit

The men reserve the right to indulge their egotism and they are never keen about having female competitors.

Holds Meeting.

There isn't a more attractive trait in a woman than quick sympathy. A selfish woman can't be truly sympathetic. To see with another's eyes, to put yourself in another's place requires forgetfulness of yourself. Nothing binds a man to a woman more securely than her making him feel that she is sympathetic with his work, his play and his ambitions. He never loses that childish desire to lay his head in the lap of some woman and tell her what he is thinking and planning. He searches until he finds her.

Good conversation is, a right-hand aid to a girl in dealing with the men. You can't make bricks without straw and you can't talk indefinitely without learning something new to talk about. It doesn't take long to exhaust the subject of mutual acquaintances, to enumerate all the things you like and dislike, to give your views on love and marriage and to tell all you know about your particular hobbies. Diverting chatter about this, that and the other is one of the bright lights in feminine charm. inine charm.

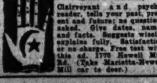

Leslie Howard, who is the matinee idol of the moment, was asked by an interviewer what trait in a woman is never charming to a man. He doesn't like her to put on too much rouge, lip-stick and eye-shadow much less airs and accents that are not hers. Somebody recently asked a man why a certain ugly girl was so popular and he replied: "She is perfectly natural and puts us at ease." You see an affected person is patently an insincere one and sincerity is one of the rock bottom virtues in friendship.

There is one other trait that all men admire extravagantly. They generally refer to it as amiability but this is a blanket word for a large order. When they compliment a girl on being amiable they mean she has a good disposition, is a good sport, doesn't call them to task for sins of omission, nor get mad with them for sins of commission, that he is ready for any lark they propose, that she is willing to string along with them and take it as it comes. There is one other trait that all men

The girl who cultivates these traits can run a close second to the one who has the magic gift and the chances are she will make a better wife than the careless girl who draws the beaux as a flower draws the bees. She has put her mind on her business and mastered it. Her success is not an accident.

In yesterday's game, Mize pulled a tendon in his leg, injured last year while playing with Rochester. Already this season the leg has caused him some trouble. He will be put under the care of a specialist tomorrow, Manager Chuck Dressen announced.

Schmidt Looks Good To Yankee Manager

Although somewhat depressed by the weather and his club's 7-2 licking at the hands of the Crackers, Joe McCarthy, gentlemanly manager of the Yankees paused to pay a tribute to the Atlanta club and Pitcher Bill Schmidt before leaving town yesterday.

"Schmidt looked awfully good in these seven innings—even better than he looked when he struck out Babe Ruth and Gehrig in a row when we came through here last year.

"He's a good-looking young pitcher and should win around 20 games for you," McCarthy said.

The Yankee skipper liked Schmidt's control and the skill with which the big rookie pitched to Lazzeri and Selkirk, two of his best hitters.

"He has something on that hell all the time and is plenty cool; your club ought to sell him before the season is over," he added.

All the Yankees, McCarthy concluded, were impressed by the Crackers' hitting power. They said that Atlanta had given their pitchers more trouble than any club they had met, exclusive of the hig league clubs. Visiting New York newspapermen stated that the Atlanta club had more punch than any minor league club they had faced. The Crackers' win yesterday was their seventh in 11 exhibitions.

STAR IN RACE Bobby Jones Winds Up in

A Triple Tie for 25th Place.

By Alan Gould.

Associated Press Sports Editor.
AUGUSTA, Ga., April 7.—(AP)—Gene Sarazen, long famons for his spectacular finishes, fired the golfing shot of a lifetime today to tie Craig Wood, the "belting blond" from Deal, N. J., for first place in the Augusta National Golf Club's $5,000 invitation tournament. Each finished the regulation 72 holes in 282.

regulation 72 holes in 282.

Trailing Wood by three strokes in a seemingly hopeless pursuit, with only four holes to go and sub-par golf necessary to have a chance, Sarazen blasted a 220-yard spoon shot that carried true all the way and rolled into the cup for a 2 on the 485-yard par-five 15th hole.

This astounding "double eagle," as rare as a hole-in-one, electrified a gallery of 2,000, pulled Sarazen up to even terms with Wood, who had shot a birdie on the 15th, and enabled Gene to keep deadlocked with his rival by playing par golf over the last three holes in one of the most exciting finishes any tournament has seen in years.

THREE SHOTS BEHIND. three shots behind Wood, who had taken over the pace-setting position yesterday, and made them all up by negotiating the rain-soaked course in near-freezing weather with a 70, two under par, while Wood was finishing with a 73. Gene scored successive rounds of 68-71-73-70 while Craig produced scores of 69-72-68-73 for totals of 282, six under par for the full 72 holes.

of 282, six under par for the full 72 holes.

They will play off for first-place money of $1,500 at 36 holes tomorrow starting at 10 a. m. (E. S. T.) and 2:30 p. m. (E. S. T.).

The finish that these two hard-hitting professionals waged, with Wood first blasting out a 34 and Sarazen then coming along with a 33 on the home stretch, contrasted with the collapse or near collapse of most of the other favorites and the disappointing finish of the renowned Robert T. Jones Jr., the former world champion.

Jones still lacking anything resembling his old skill or confidence on the greens. finished with his worst round, a 78, and wound up in a triple tie for twenty-fifth place with Mike Turness and Harry Cooper at 297. This compared with his mark of 294, good for thirteenth place, in last year's tournament.

DUTRA BLOWS.

DUTRA BLOWS.'

Olin Dutra, only a single stroke behind Wood at the outset of the fourth round, went to pieces and carded 42, six over par, for the outgoing nine holes before rallying to come back with an amazing 32, four under par, and post a 74 that gave him third money with a total of 284.

The national open champion's last nine was the best in the tournament but he would have had to have the luck to match Sarazen's 'double eagle' on the 15th offset that weird outward stretch, including a six on the third hole where he dubbed four successive shots and carded a six.

Tall Henry Picard, the Hershey, Pa., professional who set so dazzling a pace for two rounds with 135 for 36 holes, also tossed away his chances on today's first nine. He finished with a 75 for 286 that clinched fourth money, a stroke shead of Denny Shute, of Philadelphia, who had 287.

ATLANTA RAPS GOMEZ FOR ALL OF CLUB'S RUNS

Loss Ends New York Streak at Ten Straight Victories.

By Jimmy Jones.

The weather was cold and bleak resterday but Bill Schmidt, the California boy was hot—very hot—and the Crackers said a farewell to the Yankees and big league opposition by cuffing Lefty (Goofy) Gomez, their pitching ace, for seven runs and 11 hits in six innings and rounding out the day with a 7-2 victory.

It was the most imposing triumph of all for the Crackers. For the Yankees had won 10 straight ball games up to Sunday and Joe McCarthy sent his star southpaw out there to make it 11 in a row.

BILL IS GOOD.

But the best that the Yankees could do off Bill Schmidt was three hits and

But the best that the Yankees could do off Bill Schmidt was three hits and one run in the seven innings he worked and Bill added insult to injury by striking out seven opposing batsmen, picking on Lazzeri and Selkirk with two strikeouts each.

It would have been punishment indeed for the crowd of 2,600 who paid to see the show but for Schmidt's pitching and the way the Crackers went after Gomez's pitching. In fact, the Atlanta offensive really kept the spectators there, for most of them were on their feet, their hands clapping numbly and their teeth chattering for most of the game.

Ordinarily a game never would have been attempted on such a day. It was more like a December day than anything else. But as said before, Bill Schmidt scattered a lot of California sunshine amid the drabness of the atmospheric conditions and the Crackers smacked into Gomez with a lustiness that smacked of July form.

The Crackers got a run in the first linning on successive singles by "Nig" Lipscomb, Harry Taylor and Dave Harris and the Yankees tied it up in the second on Bill Dickey's long double that scored Lou Gehrig after the latter had singled.

But this state of things didn't last for long.

Bill Schmidt began bearing down, causing the Yanks, particularly Lazzeri and Selkirk to look very foolish trying to hit his deceptive "sailer," made more effective by the poor vision afforded. Even the left-handed atinging single to right, the first of his two hits and Joe Palm, the energetic catcher, beat out a roller to Lazzeri. Then little Buster Chatham, who is getting his eye on the ball, socked a lusty double to right center, scoring Easterling and Palm.

Schmidt, whose talents, it seems, are limited to pitching the ball instead of hitting it, struck out—the first of three times—but Johnny Hill, the rookie from Douglasvill; Ga., singled through Crosetti to score Chatham. Lipscomb drew a walk as Gomez kicked on Umpire Bond's judgment on balls and strikes with a flair of Casstillian temperament. Taylor pulled a single into right, his third hit.

through Crosetti to score Chatham. Lipscomb drew a walk as Gomez kicked on Umpire Bond's judgment on balls and strikes with a flair of Castilian temperament. Taylor pulled a single into right, his third hit, to score Hill. An infield out by Harris brought in Lipscomb.

Pat Malone, the big ex-Cub, refleved Gomez to pitch the seventh and eighth and the Crackers, while they pecked him for two hits, did not score.

Meanwhile Al Williams, the big right-hander with the big-foot-in-the-face had relieved Schmidt and he did fairly well in the eighth and ninth, the run made off him coming in on an error by Lipscomb on Gehri's roller. A snappy double play on Jorgens' grounder, Lipscomb to Chatham to Taylor, ended the game.

YANKEES SQUAWK.

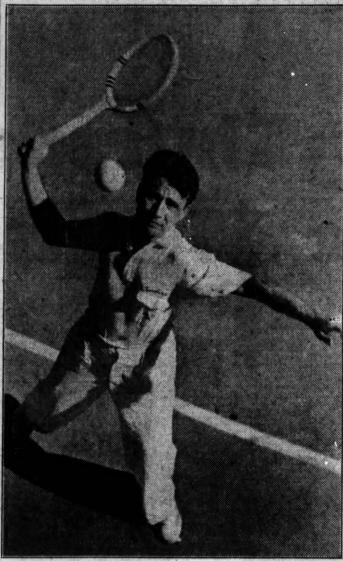

The Yankees were in a truculent mood over the happenings, They had licked the Braves twice, the Cardinals and five of the double-A and A variety. Gebrig and Gomez, particularly, seemed irked over the exuberance of the minor leaguers. But it was just too much Schmidt and too much Cracker hitting power.

BRYAN GRANT BEATS ALLISON IN NET FINALS

Atlanta Ace Takes No. 1 Star, 6-2, 1-6, 6-4, 6-4 At Houston.

HOUSTON, Texas, April 7.—(P)—Bryan Grant, "mighty mite" of Atlanta, Ga., put the Davis cup selection committee on the spot today by whipping the United States' top-ranking player, Wilmer Allison, of Austin, Texas, 6-2, 1-6, 6-4, 6-4, to win the River Oaks Club singles title.

Grant has been playing good tennis several years, but has been ignored by the gentlemen who pick the Yankee Davis cup teams. He outsteadied Allison from the back court and passed him repeatedly with deceptive shots when Allison came to the net.

SPORTS WRITER WINS GOBLET AT WEST END

Ad Smith Is Runner-Up; Fine Crowd Braves Blustery Weather.

By Jack Troy.

Anything could have happened yes erday as winter weather stepped in where spring should have been. So what could have been more appropriate than a member of the press winning at the West End Gun Club when there were all those good shooters around?

The writer, shooting in Class A for a change, had no idea of being unusual like the weather. But stranger things have happened.

This department has trailed by such a marrin as he won by on other.

a margin as he won by, on other shoots, so there must be some just cause for his leading the nearest shooter by one-third of a bird in the registered event which was the April trophy shoot at Clint Davis' sportsmen's club.

SMITH BREAKS 49.

Ad Smith, one of the finest young shooters in the city, might have won yesterday. He actually broke 49 of those hard-flying, quick-ducking clay targets. But, according to the handicap system, which classifies added birds on the first round of 25 that is registered, Smith was an innocent victim.

He broke a 25 straight. This is too good for a handicap of any kind. Anything less than 25 would give a shooter at least 1-3 of a target handicap. So, while Ad shot 25 on his first round, he missed a target on his second. And that was the pay-round, received one and one-third handicap, broke 25 straight on the second and won the silver goblet.

M. E. Harkins finished in third place with a fine score of 47 2-3. Clint Davis was right behind with 47 1-3. Horace Hill had an even 47.

OTHER SCORES.

Other leading scores included E. D. Smith Sr. and Benson Freeman Jr., 46 2-3; H. L. White, 46; E. C. Farrar, 46; Ralph Zachry, Harry Harkins and Jack Brock, 45 2-3; S. W. Roper, 45; P. M. Gilbert, Luther McDonald and Al Frese Jr., 44 2-3; I. H. Hill, 43, and W. S. Paris, 39 2-3.

In the special shoot-off between Al Frese Sr. and H. L. White, carried over from last Sunday's event, Frese won with a great 24. Smith broke 22. So Frese received the leather traveling set and thereby made that shoot a father and son event, Al Jr. having won the same prize in Class 2.

The 'miss and out' shoot yesterday was won by Clyde King Jr., who repeated a recent victory in the same event.

To Meet Tonight

Stars of Morris Brown College and Clark University will meet tonight at 8 o clock in the final basketball game of the season on the Sunset Casino courts in what is considered the greatest individual event of the spring season here among colored fans.

Ten basketball stars who have won the coveted honor of All-American will oppose each other in this game that has never met before in a similar attraction and the game has been dubbed the "Dream Game" of the century.

A complete sellout is predicted by close followers of the game. Such stars as Itty Dalton, Carl Ray, Donald Reeves, Squat Johnson and Leroy McNeil will represent Clark University, while Morris Brown will have been dubbed with the same and the game has been dubbed the "Dream Game" of the century.

CECIL HURSEY WINS BIKE RACE AT GRANT PARK

Georgia Champion Shows Great Form to Lead Fine Field.

Cecil Hursey, Georgia state champion, won the long distance race with ease, in the same fashion that he won his 25-mile race at Jacksonville, Fla., on March 3. The race was wildly exciting as 65 promising young bicyclists left Grant Park.

The riders showed exceptional skill in negotiating the numerous hills and the perilous descents and there were few spills.

Fred Johnson, Florida state champion, dark-haired, hard-riding young fellow sporting the colors of the Minima Cycling Club, led a group of five riders into second place, seven minutes behind the winner. So close did they finish together that it was difficult for the riders to sprint through the huge crowd.

MARVELOUS TIME. Hursey, the blond flyer from Savannah, made the 22-mile course in exactly one hour, which is exceptionally fast, as the world's record on a perfectly level course ridden by champions of many years' experience, in England, is 25 miles per hour. As-cording to those close to the sport, Hursey has a brilliant chance of making the United States Olympic team that goes to Germany in July of next year. In fact, Otto H. Eisele, president of the Amateur Bicylce League of America, had selected Hursey among the five strongest riders in America, and strongly recommends Hursey to the five strongest riders in America, and strongly recommends Hursey to enter all road races he possibly can. He can start off early as next Sunday as there is a 25-mile road race in his aome town, Savannah, Ga.

No amount of credit will do justice to the excellent route patrolling of Lieutenant Reggie McLean and the following traffic officers: Officer Clay, who lead the race the entire distance: F. M. Parker, R. M. Ector, D. C. Vaughn and M. L. Thomas. The Boy Scout troops, sponsored by several of the leading churches of At-

tor. D. C. Vaughn and M. L. Thomas. The Boy Scout troops, sponsored by several of the leading churches of Atlanta, kept the huge crowd in excellent control.

The cold weather spurred the riders on to one exhausting sprint after another over the rolling hills to Decatur and back, a group of 15 riders reached Decatur together, these were all mounted on special light-weight road-racing bicycles.

The light-weight Pierce bicycle, ridden by the winner, and furnished by Walthour & Hood, southeastern distributors, made Hursey's victory possible as well as his excellent athletic ability.

AMERICAN WHEELMEN.

AMERICAN WHEELMEN.

The race was promoted by the League of American Wheelmen for the purpose of developing Olympic talent and to encourage young cyclists to join the Atlanta Bicycle Club had a corps of excellent officials that handled every detail of the race to perfection. The bicycle dealers of Atlanta and the Cycle Trades of America donated over 40 prizes.

The first 25 riders finished in the following order:

inbotham, Anniston; 10, Ed Griffin, Atlanta: 11, Roland Brown, Atlanta: 12, Bill
Walthour, brother of Tatt Walthour; 13,

(Note: In this spring season, when the minds of many persons are concerned with fashions, Uncle Ray will take his readers on a trip through the ages, to show styles of dress which have been in favor from ancient up to recent times.)

In ancient Egypt, cotton cloth was common. The men wore simple costumes—usually no more than a "kilt." a wig and a pair of sandals. The kilt was a band of cloth which might reach from the chest down below the knees.

Both men and women in Egypt were in the custom of shaving the head. Many wore wigs.

Egyptian women often wore long linen or cotton dresses, held up by straps over the shoulders. The skirts were likely to reach down to the ankles, if not to the ground. Blue was a favorite color among the women. Some women wore sandals, but many went barefoot.

In ancient Greece, women were in the custom of wearing long, flowing robes. Probably no more graceful dresses have been worn by women in any other period of history. They were made of linen or wool, as a rule.

There were many forms of hair-dress among Greek women; but it was usual among married women to part the hair in the middle, and to bind it in a knot at the back of the head.

Mineral Oil Content, Without Sulphuric Acid Traces, Provides Finest of Lubricant Products.

That motorists are fast learning the true value of proper lubrication for their cars is clearly reflected in the fact sales for Kendall 2,000-mile oil in this territory showed an increase of 132 per cent in 1934 over the preceding year, according to C. Warren Lynch, Georgia distributor for the Kendall Refining Company, with offices in the Monroe Bonded Warehouse, 175 Spring street, S. W.

"Not only did the Atlanta branch register this amazing increase," Mr. Lynch asserts, "but the company as a whole reported 1934 was its greatest in all the 52 years since its estab-

NOTICE

DeKaib county police within a period of less than two hours Sunday afternoon made six cases against speeders and four cases of operating an automobile while under the influence of whisky. The cases were made on the Lawrenceville and the Covington highways.

Hearing someone cutting the screen

DeKalb County Patrolman R. G.
Smith Sunday morning captured a whisky car containing 99 gallons of whisky and a white man who gave his name as Henry D. Dailey, 27, of an East Lake drive address. Smith chased the whisky-laden automobile for two miles, and when it turned off into a dead-end road, he chased the two occupants for more than a mile through the woods before capturing Dailey. The man's companion escaped.

Myrtle Johnson, 19, and her sister, Gladys Johnson, 17, of Sandy Springs, were treated at Grady hospital early Sunday morning for cuts received when the automobile in which they were riding and which was being towed by their brother's automobile on Peachtree road near the Sardis church, got out of control and over-

Burglars early Sunday morning took hoes valued at $14.82 from the show-ase in front of the Kinney shoe store t 65 Whitehall street, according to police reports.

Caught in a restaurant at 61 For-syth street, S. W., early Sunday morning putting loot consisting of a radio, cigars, cigarets and other mer-chandise in a sack, a negro who gave his name as Raymond McCoy, of a Davis street address, was charged Davis street address, was charged with disorderly conduct and burglary.

Miss Rose Bean, of 676 West Peachtree street, reported Sunday that she had lost a diamond bracelet valued at $200, according to police reports.

The role of peacemaker is a diffi-cult one, and a job with no compen-sation, Will Favors, negro, of the rear of 581 Pulliam street, discover-

When the washwoman appears at the H. F. Boston home at 830 Pryor street, S. W., to wash the clothes which Saturday night were put in a tub on the back porch to soak, she will find she has been relieved of the task, Thieves early Sunday stole the arments, according to police reports.

A. M. Cochran will go on trial for his life Tuesday in Judge G. H. Howard's court, charged with murder, The state will contend that Cochran shot and killed Deputy Sheriff V. J. Yarbrough here 14 years ago when the officer attempted to arrest Cochran on a liquor violation, Cochran was arrested recently in New Madrid, Mo.

Mystery shrouds the matter which North Side residents will discuss at a mass meeting at 8 o'clock tonight in the North Fulton High school, North Fulton drive and Delmont avenue. The meeting has been called by a group of the outstanding leaders of the community.

Dr. W. L. White, chief of the mar-keting research and service divison of the United States Department of Com-merce, will discuss retail problems, distribution and credits before a luncheon meeting of Atlanta business executives at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Atlanta Athletic Clubernoon at the Atlanta Athletic Club

Members of the South Side Civie Federation will discuss plans for ac-quiring adequate headquarters at a meeting which will be held at 730 o'clock tonight, it was announced.

ped interest here today in advance of tomorrow's session when the legislature swings into its second week.

Already, a senate judiciary committee has raised the bar of the constitution to bills that would set up state boards and levy state taxes for payment of pensions to aged and infirm persons. The constitution, the committee found, places upon the respective counties the responsibility of caring for indigents and that was held to prohibit the state entering such a field.

Additional measures of controver Additional measures of controver-sial nature—such as outlawry of chain stores—were pending before commit-tees, some of which planned meetings tomorrow before the house meets at 3 p. m. and the senate at 3:30 p. m. Tilman, of Tampa, introduced in the senate the bill that, if enacted and held constitutional, would abolish tees, some of which planned meetings tomorrow before the house meets at 3 p. m. and the senate at 3 30 p. m.

Tillman, of Tampa, introduced in the senate the bill that, if enacted and held constitutional, would abolish chain stores. His measure declared such business constituted "evil" and he would abolish them by requiring issuance of business operating permits by the state, with only one such permit, allowing operation of only one store, going to a person, firm or corporation.

Legalization of gambling, constitutional amendments, financing of $10.500,000 annual appropriation for schools, and the bisanual gamble of a hundred years against the conscienciousless liquor traffic go down in disastrous overthrow. A mounting tide of drunkenness, accidents, debauchery at derived the defendants to show cause why the injunction law, as it has in every state that has made liquor legal.

This is no time to loosen law or relax its enforcement. May Georgia which, the petition said, circulated statements that the average profits full sovereignty over all the people."

IF DRY LAW IS REPEALED

IF DRY LAW IS REPEALED Manhood and womanhood will be ruined if prohibition is repealed in Georgia, Representative Ralph Ramsey, dry leader, told DeKalb county prohibitionists Sunday afternoon at a meeting at the Mary Lin school. Ramsey said he had recently visited in states that have repealed prohibition, and that drunkenness is more prevalent in them than in Georgia, He revalent in them than in Georgia. He prevalent in them than in Georgia. He pleaded with the voters to stick to prohibition, and he predicted that the drys will wip by an overwhelming majority in the referendum May 15.

Judge John S. Candler, head of the state prohibition forces, presided. He declared that local option would only the money from small counties. declared that local option would only take the money from small counties and give it to the larger ones. "We tried local option once in DeKalb county and liquor poured in from wet Atlanta. One wet spot will pollute any surrounding counties." he said.

Ramsey, principal of Fulton High school, asserted he would never accept any money which came from liquor taxes. He would rather go barefooted and walk to school than be paid with such funds, he said. Charles D. McKinney, head of the DaKalk temperance organization, criticized lax prohibition enforcement in Atlarta, and asserted that DeKalb would poll more dry votes than Atlanta or any other county would wets.

Most of the money was received through the mails, Lynch said, from persons living in Portland, Ore., Atlanta, Ga., and Dallas, Texas, and from small towns in midwest states.

The company, headed by A. B. Jones, who, Lynch said, once operated a similar business in Illinois until a state "blue sky" law intervened, was collecting more than $50,000 monthly. The company has operated.

statement said. "Shall prohibition be maintained and enforced, or the state turned over to organized liquor interests?

"The wet parade has made an impression. Alcoholic liquors are being the land. No wolfpack has ever exhibited greater thirst for blood than these organized liquor and brewing interests in their efforts to enslave the masses in the habit of drink.

"It is unthinkable that sober Georgians will submit to this sinister thing.

"We are dealing with the age-old enemy of mankind. No legislature can change the quality of alcohol. Nothing can offset its evil effects.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 7.—

(P)—Constitutionality of measures proposed in the house and senate topped interest here today in advance of tomorrow's session when the legislature swings into its second week.

"Whe will Be the Drinkers?"

"Partnership" Scored.

"Good government cannot accept the the low with a the way to deal with a troublesome evil is to legalize it and go into partnership with it. The repeal of problem will not partnership with it. The sagents said Jones had notified depositors on January 31 that "for the agents will an average of 117 1-2 per cent per annum."

The repeal of prohibition will open from any place where liquor is sold and with it insumerable homes will go down in social and economic overthrow.

"Repeal means a program of liquor promotion right here in Georgia that will exempt no home and spare no youth from its enticements.

"The older people cannot forget the days when drunk men profaned the liquid profit, but when the city's streets and lashed their horses and shot their pistols and whooped like howling dervishes along country roads that led from the saloon-infested towns. Repeal will bring these conditions back inevitably.

"When the first ten years that we were in business The company of 117 1-2 per cent per annum."

The repeal of prohibition will open the flow of an orry of liquor and lawlessness such as Georgia has not lately known. A muddy stream of pollution will open the flow of an orry of liquor promotion right here in Georgia that will exempt no home and spare no youth from its enticements.
